Investment Option for Individuals

The investment opportunity available to individuals through the Foundation is through the Iowa United Methodist Church Building Fund Trust. Fixed rate certificates are offered in one-, three-, and five-year terms with the funds being used to provide capital loans to Iowa United Methodist churches and related institutions for use in construction, renovation, and repair projects.

Additional information about this investment opportunity can be found at www.iumf.org/services-for-individuals/building-fund-trust/.
